Dear John:

I have read with great interest and appreciation your thoughtful report on the World Health Assembly published in the Congressional Record of June 23.

It is a keen analysis of the many currents and undercurrents flowing in Geneva at the time and in the Health Assembly in particular.

It is gratifying to know that you share so fully our faith in the World Health Organization as an instrument for building a better world and providing a sound foundation for continuing peace. I am glad that you have stated this so clearly and forcibly in your report.

Sincerely yours,

Lee

Surgeon General

Hon. John E. Fogarty
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

*may I say, too, that the statement
you gave before the Committee on Program and Budget was very well presented and received favorable comment.*
